AFFAIRS CIVIC.

The long pole with which our contemporary (like the old man and his staff) is prodding into every little hole in the hope of finding a very big man's nest is a little too unwieldy, and somewhat too lengthy for the party who carries it.

The rate payers of Brandon are informed by this "little old man" that has come over the sea, that ex. Mayor Daly has left the city "finance in a most unsettled and unsatisfactory condition." This is the statement which our lynx-eyed contemporary unblushingly makes, but the statement and the fact are at variance. The very absurdity of one man, even if he was a Mayor, leaving the finance of a whole city in a muddle does not appear consistent with common sense. Supposing for instance that there is a muddle, that it is not a muddle of the heated and very fertile imagination of our contemporary, how is that the twelve other members of the council are in no way implicated in this muddle and that Mr. Daly, who filled the position of Mayor, and who filled it with great credit too as the records of the council proceedings, and the opinions of the ratepayers of all classes who are not prejudiced simply confirm is singled out for slaughter by our contemporary, and the clique of which it is the exponent?

The reason is not far to seek. At the present time Mr. Daly is taking a very active interest in the return of Mr. Woodworth to the Provincial Legislature, and for no other reason, an attempt is now being made to damage Mr. Daly, in hope of having it reflect on Mr. Woodworth. Now let us for a minute examine this Mayor's nest. Brandon has been a city for some months, it has a city charter, and all the paraphernalia of a civic corporation. It has a Mayor and a council composed of twelve members. This council was elected early in the summer. It could not be elected sooner. When it was properly constituted it went to work and had its various committees appointed. There was a finance committee, of course, there usually is in all well conducted councils; the Mayor was an ex-officio member of that committee. He acted with that committee as an active member, services he rendered were invaluable. The people of Brandon wanted street and other improvements, and in order to raise money for these improvements it was decided to raise debentures. But a great amount of work was necessary to be done before the debentures by law could be put into shape in order to have the debentures ready. No time was lost. Many of the wishes of the people that the improvements should not wait the slow process of floating the debentures for the money, but that temporary loans could be made with the banks, and as soon as the debentures were floated and the money realised, the temporary loans would be wiped out. There were no kickers to this, not even the long-eared quadruped of our contemporary made it a time for extending his hind hoofs. Everyone was satisfied. Such a course had been pursued in Winnipeg, the same had been done at the Portage, in Emerson and in West Lynne. There was, be it remembered, not a dollar in the civic treasury, hence it was necessary to have a start in some way. As soon as it was possible the debentures were advertised, but they have not, at this writing, as far as we can learn, been sold. In the meantime the banks from whom temporary loans were obtained, and many persons to whom the city are indebted are waiting their money. So they are in other places, and the best persons will have to wait sometimes until the money can be got. The rate of interest paid on the loans is not so low that they should make any great noise about it as our noble contemporary insinuates, but then it is so hard to believe our contemporary that we are content to pause here. That Brandon's debentures will bring a good figure and that every one will be paid immediately is now the prospect. To some inexperienced councillors the financial question may appear a very difficult problem; it always does to those who are not very good financiers. However, there is nothing like having a strong horse, for if he does pull one into a hole or rut he has strength enough to pull one out, and Mr. Daly's assistance as promised the council on the occasion of the unanimous vote and testimonial that was presented to him, could be relied upon. Meantime we would ask the sensible, shrewd and sound business people of Brandon what they think of an organ that is human and contemptible enough to attempt to injure the credit of the City at the very time when the debentures are in the market?

Our special correspondent telegraphs the MAIL that there are serious dissensions in the ranks of the Quebec Rouges. The shadows which coming events are said to cast before, are in this instance indicative that the disaffection has not been healed by the Toronto convention of Reform philanthropists with their sixteen resolutions to boot.

Our enlightened contemporary stigmatises British Columbia, the poorest and meanest of the provinces. This is doing it unkind, but it is not the case that British Columbia is the poorest and meanest of the provinces. If the constitutional fault-finder of the star-light organ knew anything about the Pacific province, he would not have given utterance to any such statements. Because Mr. Imperious Blake has been for years troubled with an unaccountable prejudice against the accident province, it is an all sufficient reason that the little Blake tatters throughout the country should follow in that cynic's wake.

THE MAIL is advised that the council of the Municipality of Brandon did not pass any resolution petitioning or otherwise memorializing the local government to establish a polling place at South City for the coming Provincial elections. The statement that the municipal council had done so appeared in two separate columns and in two different issues of our reliable west end contemporary, and the editorial comments in the MAIL condemning the municipal council for such action were written in the belief that the statements of the evening print were true. We are making the necessary inquiries in the premises and the full facts of the matter will be laid before our readers as soon as they are ascertained.

Says our patriotic opponent in its issue last evening, "Is the miserable greed of a railway monopoly to prevail over these? Are we Russian serfs or free born Britons? Where do we live anyway?" Is not our exasperated contemporary a little astray. When an individual loses his latitude and longitude he is said to be "out sea," and this appears to be the hopelessly uncertain state in which our contemporary finds itself. It ought to be generally conceded that when a journal doesn't know whether its editor is a Russian serf or a free-born Briton, and that he doesn't know where he is that the proprietor of such uncertainty is a little off or entirely "detached."

The Evening Error in its latest issue draws a very plausible picture of the issues which are now before the country. The issues are presented with a very high colored finish in favor of Mr. J. W. Sifton, the Grit Sobieski, who appears at the head of the patriotic Lithuanians and is going to save our Christendom by raising the siege of Vienna. The gallant Sifton may save himself the sally. The day has gone by, if it ever existed, for the people to work against their own interest. The electors of Brandon division know how to measure all this patriotic buncombe which is continually steaming from the camp of the Siftonites. They will elect a man like Mr. Woodworth, who is matter of fact, and who is troubled with no dangerous heresies which are inimical to the integrity of the Dominion.

The Evening Evangelist says the Dominion Government bought and paid for the lands of the North-West, therefore we have no right to them, nor have we any claim to be considered in the management of them. This is precisely what ALEXANDER MACKENZIE and David Mills said and maintained to a better Terms delegation some years ago when Mr. Mackenzie was Premier and David Mills was Minister of the Interior. Judging from the sentiments of the little journal of the west end, which is endeavoring to re-echo the sentiments of the party of repudiation, to the best of his petty ability, the above named statement's opinions have undergone a considerable change. Our local contemporary is however well aware that things have to be taken as they are until they can be improved, and that improvement will not come by any means by threats or hostile proceedings. Extensive, important and prosperous as our Province as it is, is, after all but a small portion of our Confederated Dominion.

Ex-Judge Miller is undoubtedly a candidate for the electoral division of Rockwood. The circumstance that it is now a fact that Mr. Miller will contest Rockwood as a square-toed Conservative enables the Free Press to pour a broadside into the ex-Judge's candidature. The organ has conveniently forgotten that its pet champion Oliver Mowat descended from the bench and entered the political arena amidst the cheers and approval of the Grit Press throughout Ontario. If Mr. Mowat could do this in Ontario, we see no reason why it is such a dreadful crime for Mr. Miller to become a candidate for the suffrages of Rockwood. As a matter of fact Judge Miller had left the bench for reasons of his own, and in this respect his candidature differs from Mr. Mowat, who left the bench at the bid and under the direction of a party faction, as there was no one to lead the Ontario Grits in the Local House. It is not this fact or "the petty consistency of the hobgoblin of little minds" that moves our contemporary. It is the fear that Mr. Miller will defeat Mr. Jackson, who is "one of the men possessing natural ability equal to his own." This is the contingency that our contemporary dreads. According to the belief of the Free Press the Government requires some new legal talent in its personnel. Should Judge Miller enter the Government we think he will bring a confidence and a strength to the councils of the country that have been a strangers to the cabinet for some time.

THE RINK AGAIN.

More Pertinent Inquiries from Unlucky - A Few More Whiskies.

Editor of the Mail: I see in your issue of the 6th that Messrs. Munro & Shaw make a lame attempt to answer the charges against them, but one word in no way clears them. I will not answer them at any length, as I do not consider the game worth the powder, but I will ask, did the bottles of champagne go to the court? I rather think not. And Mr. Herge's four dollars was a typographical error! This information, though I did not know, was given me by a party writing a list of prisoners to the court, and he says it was for the purpose of being used, and they copy it word for word, if it is proper to turn around and blame an error of the type. This is No. 1. The only skater under 12 years of age got two dollars that belonged to her. Well she had a receipt for it at 3 o'clock on Saturday, and at least eight hours after your paper had left the press, stating in their letter she had received it. Let No. 2 called. The snow was ready for Mr. Phipps; they must be intended to try and beat the breeze, as some of the judges state they were awarded a Mr. Lang. This substantiates the charge that pieces were not given according to judges' award, and made No. 3. As to the charges of cheating, why if they (the managers) have not brains enough to look after their own interests, and are not soft enough to let the public beat them, that is their fault, and I consider it shabby on their part to try and make indiscriminately others who patronize them.

They also state that after the lady awarded the prize for Night had donned the bracelets and gloves, she handed the smoking cap to the waiter. Well, I think they have an enormous quantity of check to indicate that a married lady has a lover, and then that she took a smoke, but such is all you can expect from such parties. I would advise people who are using a portion of a lane, the property of the city, not to be too fast in their remarks, or they may have to move. This will be all that the gentlemen managing the rink will hear from me. I only write this to let the public see that they have not advanced anything that clears them in anyway. Leaving them to their fate, which is sure and certain failure, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
OSWEGO.

COMMERCIAL.

The receipts since our last report have been considerable, especially of wheat and oats. Very little barley is coming, and no sales of flax are reported. Purchases make complaint that a considerable quantity of dirty wheat is offered, and that farmers are too careless in this respect. Such wheat will doubtless be graded as No. 3 when the market is fairly under organization. Messrs. Woodworth & Rounsefell have purchased a considerable quantity of wheat this week, and Mr. Rounsefell reports a good quantity of wheat and flax. The latter has advanced owing to a limited supply and an increased demand. The other quotations remain unchanged.

INTER-PROVINCIAL.

Clipped from Exchanges.

A circular has been issued from the Department of Agriculture and Statistics, to the effect that municipalities throughout the Province, asking for information as to the number of acres embraced within the municipality the average on the resident roll, the number of residents, the population, the number of cattle, sheep, pigs and horses, the assessment of real and personal property, the number of days statute labor, the rate of taxation, and no abstract of the receipts and expenditures for 1892. It is intended to tabulate the returns sent in, in answer to this circular, for publication in the annual report of department.

The Winnipeg Assize are open, with Judge Irvine presiding.

A number of Winnipeg Councillors and officials have been paying an official visit to the local civic fathers. They were royally entertained.

The Brandon Daily Mail

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1883.

WANTED.—At the Mail Office, a smart intelligent lad about 12 years of age to deliver the Mail to regular city subscribers and learn the printing business. Good encouragement will be offered to a boy who means business.

BRANDON BUDGET.

Mercury 18 below freezing point last night. The county council of 1882 was in session yesterday.

There are thirty-eight county members at present staying at the Club.

Negotiations are pending for the sale of the corner lot on Homer and Ninth Streets.

The contract for the enlargement of the Methodist church will be awarded tonight.

No quorum of the city council gathered on Monday night, consequently no meeting was held.

The Mail intends making a list of all freight arriving at the C.P.R. depot from and to-day.

Mr. Howe, butcher, has received a large consignment of meat in the shape of one car load, per freight yesterday.

The was a committee meeting of the Club, held yesterday at 4 p. m., to consider the financial standing of that institution.

Mr. J. R. Miller, the enterprising merchant of Eighth street, went on a business trip yesterday to Rapid City.

Since the Money Order Office has opened—which was two days ago—Mr. Kavanagh, Postmaster, remitted orders to the amount of $401.

We hear that Jas. Smart, our leading hardware merchant, intends erecting a brick store on Rosser Avenue, next to Munro & Warwick, in the spring.

Mr. T. D. McLean has sold to Jacob Reibury 3 lot on 9th street for $400. Mr. Reibury intends erecting a machine shop, a much needed industry.

The wind broke out somewhat strong yesterday, and several temporary buildings in the city sustained a little shaking. There is now a pleasant lull.

Mr. King, of Medicine Hat, accompanied by Mr. Woodworth left for Gravelly, Flat Creek and other places. They will not return till Friday.

The Mail is sent every day as an exchange to the Winnipeg Free Press, Times and Star. We have received only two or three copies of these journals in return. Will our big contemporaries kindly see to it.

George Ripple & Co., finding the premises presently occupied by them, too small for their extensive business, contemplate building on Rosser as soon as spring opens. Mr. Ripple is now east buying stock for the summer trade.

Those interested in the formation of a literary society in connection with the Presbyterian Church are to meet at Mr. Lockhart's residence, 10th street, this evening. The object is a commendable one, and all who are willing to engage in pleasant intercourse for mutual improvement, should be present to aid the scheme.

Mr. Charles Danort, partner of Mr. Ganville on the Club, has had child christened on Sabbath last, in St. Matthew's church. Messrs. Ganville and Danort were the sponsors on that occasion. Nearly every member of the Club were there, as well as the following ladies: Mrs. Healy, Mrs. Gurney, Mrs. Clement Smith, Mrs. Byrdell, Mrs. J. Smith. Mr. Danort intended naming his son and heir Charles "Brandon," but he registered in Winnipeg the day after his birth as Charles James. Mr. and Mrs. Danort are staying here for a few days, and make this their home.

It should be remembered that every little puff of wind that gets up a little racket is not necessarily a blizzard. When that racket gets up on its hind legs and howls, and the mercury shrinks away down below the brim, and the wind travels like greased lightning down a spiral twist, there is a possibility of a blizzard making a close call.

C. P. R. CLATTER.

Last of freight and names of consignees which arrived at the C. P. R. Station Tuesday evening, Jan. 9, 1883:

Geo. Ripple & Co., 2 cars load; 2 cars varnish; Douglas & Ham, 1,000 stationery mixed; Butterfield & Hawley, 1 box frozen fish; 2 Buffalo hams; G. B. Angus, 3 doors; 8 bags Balustrade; 8 door hand rails; 8 jewel posts; McLean Bros., 1 cook stove, 6 box stoves, 2 coal boilers, 2 bundles pots, 1 bundle spiders; Jas. McInnis, 80 cases liquor; Deacon Hooper, 3 bbls rye; C. Rogers, 3 cases cysters; J. Robinson, 6 bbls slats, 6 bbls ends, 1 bbl bed tops, 2 bbls pillows, 2 bbls coats, 2 wash stands, 2 small tables, 4 K tables; Fred Russell, 4 bags fish; Rosak & Rose, 1 box clothespins; Douglas & Ham, 6 bbls paper; Dr. Fleming, 1 case drugs; Am. Lumber Co., 3 cars lumber; Patrick & Hughes, 1 car lumber; C. P. R., 1 car lumber.

PERSONALS.

Lud. K. Cameron, publisher of the New West Farmer, was in the city yesterday, on his way home to Winnipeg. He reports that the train are running very irregularly in the far west, he being detained three days in Moose Jaw, owing to the effect of the weather of the overworked locomotives of the C. P. R. At every station "dead" engines were to be seen, and as a consequence business is not as active as it would otherwise be. Mr. Cameron says he is amazed every time he visits Brandon by the substantial progress being made here.

G. B. Huston, acting manager of the Motion Picture film in the city and registered at the Royal.

A. Collier, landlord of the Grand View, has arrived in the city from Winnipeg, and shares the patronage of Mr. Robinson, proprietor of that excellent hostelry.

A. E. McMahon of the city drug store has returned from a rather extended trip to Winnipeg.

MAIL MATTER.

Brandon Post Office vindicated. Next to Winnipeg in importance, Total Revenue for the Year ending December 31st, 1882.

The assertion having been made that Brandon Post Office was second to Winnipeg in rank and importance, the Manitoba Free Press undertook to make out that such was not the case, but Post Office Inspector McLeod being appealed to, that official informed the Free Press that he desired them to correct the following paragraph, which appeared in the issue of that journal on Saturday last.

A dispatch from Brandon in yesterday's paper states that the revenue of the Post Office was $600—equal to the revenue of the Winnipeg Post Office for the same month two years ago. This is not correct. Two years ago last December the revenue for the Winnipeg office amounted to $1,605, or nearly double the amount credited to it. It is also stated in the dispatch that the Brandon office takes rank next to the Winnipeg office, which is also not quite correct, as we are assured that Emerson and Portage la Prairie are both ahead of Brandon in the matter of revenue.

The Free Press therefore comes out in Monday with the following paragraph:—

Post Office Inspector McLeod desires to correct a paragraph which appeared in Saturday's issue relative to the business done in the Winnipeg and Brandon Post offices. He acknowledges having been interviewed by a Brandon newspaper reporter, but at the time at which the comparison referred to was made was three years ago and not two, at which date the figures were substantially correct. He also states that the Brandon office now takes second rank to Winnipeg, being ahead of both Portage la Prairie and Emerson.

From Mr. Kavanagh in charge of the Brandon office a Mail reporter was informed that the total revenue at the Brandon office for the year ending Dec. 31, 1882 was $7,114.50, the month of December alone being $912.41, the actual remittance for postage stamps sold having been $901.01. The number of registration, including letters, parcels, books, &c., passing through and handled for renumbering by the post office officials was 24,654, and of registered letters mailed at Brandon during the past year was 6,204; delivered 4,901. This out to be conclusive that Brandon is second in the roll.

A JOURNALISTIC BLOW OUT.

A PRESS RE-UNION.

The Press Gang of the Four Corners, Emerson, West Lynne, Pembina and St. Vincent, had an oyster supper at the Russell House, Emerson, on last Saturday night. The Daily Manitoban, published at Emerson, contains a report of the gathering, a circumstance that suggests a reportorial gravity to the close. The following heavy weights did ample justice to the occasion as well as to the spread:

W. G. Mitchell, Herald, St. Vincent, Minn. P. A. Gatchell, Pioneer, Pembina, D.T. Chas. S. Douglas, International, Emerson. I. Harley Brock, International, Emerson. James Irving Crabbe, the Manitoban. Ormond S. Brown.

Arthur W. Brown. The lastly included: Mayor Carney, Collector Bradley, Dr. Cameron, A. Rieckhoff and D. Shaw, of Emerson; Geo. C. Wilde, of Morris; J. Fox, Willoughby Clark and Cassin Webster, of Pembina. Mr. C. S. Douglas, of the International, presided, and the company drank to the toast with a root that showed they were frontier newspaper men who did not stick at trifles, and who could meet in a festive way and "golf" to each other's health, happiness and future felicity.

The following telegram was read from the Mail staff:

BRANDON, MAN., Jan. 6, 1883.

CARE C. S. DOUGLAS, EMERSON.

The Mail staff regret their absence tonight, but hope each "case" will be well "filled," "fat takes," "plenty breaks," and no "stale matter." Copy please. GEO. E. ELLIOTT.

The points in the message (which can be appreciated by news people) created much amusement.

The supper was a happy event, and the re-union has done much towards establishing an esprit de corps amongst the fraternity in the four corners.

J. R. Miller in returning thanks to his numerous customers and the public generally for their liberal patronage during the past year, would earnestly solicit a continuance, and intimate that he was never in a better position to give big bargains than at present, having just received two car loads choice new Sugars, Coffees, Raisins, Currants, Syrrups and Honeys, at much less than regular market quotations. Also having secured a large portion of a Stock of General Groceries, at less than first wholesale prices, which enables me to offer unheard of Bargains. Now is the time and this is the place to buy your Christmas and New Year Goods. Everything fresh and bright as a new dollar, and away below any other house in town.
